

INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Lori A. Torres

Chief Legal Counsel / Deputy Commissioner

Lori Torres serves as Chief Legal Counsel and Deputy Commissioner at the Indiana Department of Transportation. Before coming to INDOT, Torres' state service included a six-year term as the Indiana Commissioner of Labor under former Gov. Mitch Daniels and Lt. Gov. Becky Skillman.

She most recently worked at the Indianapolis law firm of Ice Miller, where she primarily focused on strategic planning for economic development in southwestern Indiana, and in the regulatory, administrative, and labor and employment areas. Prior to joining Indiana state government, Torres worked as a practicing attorney for 20 years in Johnson, Marion and surrounding counties, primarily at Smart Kessler & Torres.

Torres is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Indiana University Bloomington with an undergraduate degree in Political Science and Telecommunications, and received her law degree from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law in Indianapolis.

September 2014